CME Accreditation

The American College of Physicians (ACP) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The ACP designates each live activity for the number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s) listed below. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The Missouri Chapter Scientific Meeting has been accredited for a maximum of *17.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)*TM

The SEP modules pre-course, for a maximum of *4 AMA PRA Category 1 credit(s)*TM

Successful completion of this CME activity (the Missouri Chapter Scientific Meeting), which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 17.25 medical knowledge MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. Participants will earn MOC points equivalent to the amount of CME credits claimed for the activity. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Women in Medicine Luncheon

Join us for the fourth of our Chapter's "Women in Medicine" series, with the topic "A New Era in Leadership." We hope to see you there. Our focus is to create a venue for women physicians to collaborate and engage in fruitful discussions that will help us promote, progress and be successful in our chosen field. These ongoing sessions will give us an opportunity to be mentors and mentees and provide a platform for professional development. We are committed to focusing on issues that are relevant to any successful physician. The topics might vary, but the spotlight is YOU! So join us and let's solve some problems, build our network and embark on our own journeys.
