EXPLORE A CAREER IN INTERNAL MEDICINE

LEARNING AND CAREER RESOURCES

ACP can help you prepare for residency application and selection with our residency database, tips for residency application and interviewing tips.

Explore a series of articles to help you plan and navigate your potential career in internal medicine. You can also visit the Career Paths in IM video series developed by the Missouri Chapter to hear a real-life perspective on IM and the various paths of IM.

PUBLICATIONS

Annals of IM: Members get a free online subscription to Annals, the most widely-cited journal focused on internal medicine and its subspecialties.

ACP Impact: A free online monthly newsletter for medical students, including medical student perspectives, physician profiles, winning abstracts, info about subspecialty careers, and helpful articles.

ACP Internist and Hospitalist: ACP Internist provides news and information for internists, and reports on the activities of ACP; ACP Hospitalist focuses on hospitalists and other hospital-based physicians. Student members get a free online subscription.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

MKSAP®: Fourth year medical students may be interested in the Medical Knowledge Self-Assessment Program (MKSAP), an integrated learning system offering information in the core of internal medicine.

DynaMed®: Through ACP's collaboration with EBSCO, ACP members receive free access to the most current, evidence-based clinical decision support tool, DynaMed.

Clinical Guidelines: ACP produces highly respected, evidence-based clinical practice guidelines, with the aim of helping clinicians deliver the best health care possible.
